LEARNING FOR LIFE

Information Technology Specialist

(Prerequisite to Networking and Cabling Class)

Wherever computing technology is at work, IT is at work, IT plays an active role in the way software and computer systems are implemented. With an Information Technology Specialist (ITS) certificate from the Bakersfield Adult School, you will be prepared to apply your knowledge of computer science, business, and project management principles and techniques, as well as your specialized skills as an IT certificate holder.

Info. Tech. class will provide knowledge in the following areas:

- Hands on exposure to powerful, high-level tools for making computer networks
- Current and future developments in the field
- Emphasis on networks (wired and wireless)
- Blueprint/CAD review and design
- Phone and Audio visual systems
- Conflict management
- Project management
- Telecommunications

Outcome: Students will earn an introductory course certificate
